Konnie Burton discusses her statewide news outlet, The Texan, at February meeting

Konni Burton is Founder and CEO of The Texan, a statewide news outlet focused on the stories that matter most to Texans and their pocketbook. Previously, she was a grassroots activist who worked on numerous campaigns for local, state and federal races. Konni then went on to run for office and served Tarrant County's Senate District 10 in Austin from 2015 to 2019.

You'll want to be sure to make your reservation to hear Konnie at our regular membership luncheon on Tuesday, February 25 at the JCRP Headquarters, 210 S. Main in Cleburne. Networking will begin at 11:30 a.m. with the program starting at Noon. Cost is $15 per person. Email your RSVP to President Tiffany Strother at tiffany@strotherandstrotherlaw.com by February 21.

Konnie's experience as a grassroots activist, elected official, and taxpaying citizen provides a unique and valuable perspective on the political landscape in Texas.

She will discuss why quality, ad-free content without liberal bias and isn't hostile to the worldview of Texans is desperately needed in this state.

You'll learn the issue with media today, why she founded The Texan and why media without narrative is important. She'll also share stories her organization has reported on that liberal news outlets haven't.

I want to take a moment and say thank you to all our candidates who took the time to attend our Candidate Forum in January. Everyone did a fantastic job. Running for public office is not an easy task and on behalf of the JCRW, we say thank you for your willingness to serve our great county. The Primary Election is right around the corner and early voting begins February 18th and goes through February 28th. To locate early voting locations, visit <http://www.johnsoncountytexas.org/departments/elections-office/early-voting-locations>. Remember, March 3rd is the Primary Election, so don't forget to VOTE! Make your voice heard, bring a friend, bring a family member and help Keep Texas Red!

Applications are being accepted now through March 23 for the Polly Guthrie Memorial Scholarship. If you know a Johnson County senior interested in applying, encourage them to contact their school counselor or visit <http://www.jcrwtexas.org> to download an application.
