Stay Home! Be Safe! April Meeting Cancelled

The safety and health of our members, family and neighbors is foremost in the decisions made by your JCRW Board of Directors. In an effort to follow the regulations issued by national, state and local officials, JCRW's April Membership Meeting is cancelled. President Tiffany Strother urged members to watch your email and follow the organization on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram for updated information on future events. "We urge everyone to practice social distancing, stay home and be safe," Strother added.

In an effort to help you stay informed following are several official websites with up-to-date information from federal, state and local governments.

Congratulations to our Republican candidates that prevailed in the March Primary Election. Many of our candidates will not have opponents in the November General Election, but some will have active Democratic candidates. We must stay involved and work hard to secure a Republican victory from the top the bottom of the ballot. Democrats are targeting Texas, but we will join forces to Keep Texas Red. Get involved. Help your candidates.
